

Colonialism on Trial: Indigenous Land Rights and the Gitksan-WeSuwetEn Sovereignty Case

This book brings alive the cultural and spiritual distinctiveness of the Gitksan and Wetsuweten peoples while serving as a stinging indictment of the western legal systems which deny rights, justice and dignity to native peoples. This is a rich and revelatory scrapbook of portraits sketches, court transcripts, newspaper reports and photographs. The book tells the wonderful and painful stories behind the courtroom drama while making it clear how important the Gitksan and Wetsuwetens struggles for control of their land is for the world-wide movement for indigenous rights.
