

The Mind of the Mind: The film of the soul and the spirit

Chewing in and out of the substance of this book one will start to learn that our future is written in our mind. The purpose of this book is to send a message of hope and wisdom that our minds defines who we are and that everything is based off the energy you send out into the universe and that how the title the mind of the mind came about. To seed the light that our thoughts have a lot to do with who we are. What you focus on, your beliefs, your dreams, your fears, worries and doubts, all become your reality because they are present in your mind. The second principal idea behind this book is to give us the wisdom that although failing is not ennobling experience because it entails fear, stress, and sometimes depression: it means a thousand petty humiliation and hardships yet after failing we ought to discover the primary reason of our existence. This is in line with what one of the greatest author of all times J. K. Rowling explain that failure means a stripping away of the inessential. It might be well be that you might have never fail on the scale others do, but some failure in life is inevitable. Well of course, it is impossible to live without failing at something, unless
