

History of Truro Parish in Virginia

The work at hand covers the establishment and changing contours of the Truro Parish, to the history of individual churches (such as Paynes Church, Pohick, and Zion), to the composition of the parish vestry (which, by the way, numbered such Virginia luminaries as George Washington, George Mason, and George Fairfax), to church accounts and levies, and so on. Also included are a complete listing of Truro vestrymen, church wardens, and other officials; a list of several hundred Fairfax County voters in 1744; and genealogical and biographical notes of various vestrymen.
