

An Anglo-American Alliance: A Serio-Comic Romance and Forecast of the Future (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from An Anglo-American Alliance: A Serio-Comic Romance and Forecast of the Future In presenting this volume to the public it is not the intention of the author to offer it as a literary masterpiece, but, in his adopted language - conscious of his limitation - merely to give expression to his thoughts on certain problems of life that have always seemed to him of particular significance. At present there appears to be a general bombastic clamor among certain nations who, decrying others as barbarous, claim to have reached the highest pinnacle of civilization. Yet a glance at the existing conditions in those self-lauded governments will reveal rampant corruption among their leaders who, for their own selfish ends, retard legislations which are absolutely imperative for the general welfare. It is not necessary to mention other ways in which the people are being daily betrayed, for this is sufficient to render any thinking person despondent and pessimistic. The causes of the decadence of nations are not the laws which have been enacted, but the flagrant violation of these very laws, actuated by greed, avarice and commercialism which are generated in the individual in power.
