

The Shaping of Modern China: Hudson Taylors legacy

This edition includes BOTH volumes (2) of the hardcopy edition of this book. China is poised to play a definitive role in the third millennium. The author traces the parallel influences of Chinese and Western secular history, trade and diplomacy, including the Opium Wars, and Catholic and Protestant missions and Bible translation, with dissemination of the Christian Scriptures in Chinese under the auspices of the United Bible Societies. A J Broomhall, a great-nephew of Hudson Taylor, worked as a medical missionary in southwest China and the Philippines.
